This is to advise that the County of San Diego Board of Supervisors has approved the above-described project on April 30, 2024 (#) and found the project to be exempt from the CEQA under the following criteria:

Exempt status and applicable section of the CEQA ("C") and/or State CEQA Guidelines ("G"): (check only one)

- Declared Emergency [C 21080(b)(3); G 15269(a)]
 Emergency Project [C 21080(b)(4); G 15269(b)(c)]
 Statutory Exemption. C Section(s):
 Categorical Exemption. G Sections: 15312 Surplus Government Property Sales
 G 15182 – Residential Projects Pursuant to a Specific Plan
 Activity is exempt from the CEQA because it is not a project as defined in Section 15378.
 G 15061(b)(3) - It can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment and the activity is not subject to the CEQA.

Statement of reasons why project is exempt:

The sale of surplus government property through the County of San Diego's bid process is categorically exempt from CEQA pursuant to Section 15312, Surplus Government Property Sales, as it involves the declaration and leasing of surplus government property that is not located in an area of statewide, regional, or areawide concern identified in Section 15206(b)(4) of CEQA Guidelines, does not have significant values for wildlife habitat or other environmental purposes and would qualify for a categorical exemption pursuant to Section 15332, Infill Development Projects. Additionally, the project will not impact environmental resources of hazardous or critical concern that are designated, precisely mapped and officially adopted by government agencies; does not contribute to cumulative environmental impact; will not have a significant impact on the environment due to unusual circumstances; does not damage scenic resources within a designated state scenic highway; and is not on the list of Hazardous Waste and Substance Sites pursuant to Section 65962.5 of the Government Code.

The following is to be filled in only upon formal project approval by the appropriate County of San Diego decision-making body.
