If the goal is to end discrimination and promote human rights and protection, why are the mentally ill included in the category of women and girls?
You are not meeting the needs of little girls who must touch a toilet seat to lower it in order to use the toilet in an all gender bathroom. [Everyone knows there are only 2 sexes otherwise, why is the agenda pushing the absurdity?]

This item is identifying the means to provide special privileges to a voter base for politicians.
There is no benefit to women and girls.
Men [born with, still have or removed male genitalia] are provided privileged position to impose on and invade spaces meant for women and girls.
This is gaslighting.

Where to start: As a man, I am offended that the 'Intersectional Gender Equity Terms' (page 12) include Women and girls, but not boys or men. The report goes downhill from there.

Sort of like vivisection, support for gender-altering treatments and the like, instead of intersection.
