I support accessible public restrooms for all. Access to public bathrooms is a matter of equity, safety, and public health. In 2017, San Diego County faced a hepatitis A outbreak, which resulted in the deaths of 20 people. More recently, the COVID pandemic once highlighted the importance of accessible hand-washing stations in public spaces. It's vital that the County takes action to improve public health and increase access to restrooms for all. Thank you.

It's vital that the County takes action to improve public health and increase access to restrooms for all. I strongly support this initiative.

I am a college student and I support the initiative to create accessible public restrooms for all. People experiencing homelessness should not be criminalized and dehumanized in such a way that they don't even have access to spaces for them to take care of their hygienic needs. I support increasing public restroom access.

I'm a community organizer with the Party for Socialism and Liberation. I support accessible, safe and operational public restrooms for all. Additions like diaper changing stations, safe needle deposit boxes, and free menstrual products in all County-owned and operated restrooms would support a more welcoming city to all visitors while providing care & basic necessities to county residents. Plus, frequently utilized restrooms should all be ADA compliant and have signage in multiple languages.

I support accessible public bathrooms for all. Everyone requires the safety, security, and sanitation offered by public bathroom access, including our unhoused neighbors. Everyone benefits from the infrastructure of sanitation services and they may reduce future county health costs by preventing communicable diseases. Safety and cleanliness concerns can be addressed by hiring staff to clean and monitor the highly trafficked bathrooms. San Francisco's Pit Stop program is a great model for this.

I am writing in to express my support in the continuation of the SASEA program in our preschool - EES, David & Jillian Gilmour Early Education Center. The SASEA program has helped our parents, children, and staff feel safer from COVID-19 at school. It has aided in the process of early detection and identifying asymptomatic positive cases. This program has catered to our full time working parents by providing a free testing service on site during school hours. We would LOVE for SASEA to return!

The pandemic has shut down a lot of public restrooms and leaving our house less population without much options for sanitary public hygiene care spaces. This must include safe needle deposit boxes, diaper changing stations, free menstrual products, and ADA compliance too.

There are a number of demands being made by local residents, none of which should be excused or overlooked.

Allow the public to submit maintenance requests, feedback on cleanliness, and requests for materials (ex: toilet paper, soap, etc.) for each bathroom location and identify ADA compliant BAs

I am born and raised in San Diego. I used public transportation to go to SDSU, and several times I had to delay my 2 hour trip to get to School because there was no bathroom nearby a stop, so I had to walk to stores nearby and would sometimes be denied the ability to use a restroom because I was not a customer. Public restrooms are a public health need that benefits all of us! I urge you to invest in short and long term policy changes to improve the condition and accessibility of bathrooms.

End the State of Emergency. Dr. Wooten told Supervisor Desmond at the last BOS meeting, she would post the criteria for ending the local COVID state of emergency. Regarding infrastructure to improve storm water runoff -- this should be #1 on your agenda until it is funded. My company is working with the Department of Defense to improve water treatment systems intended to filter out toxic chemicals from entering the aquifers that supply drinking water to communities and pollute oceans. I strongly support this proposal to increase access to public bathroom facilities throughout the County. As a matter of equity, it is also crucial that the County ensures access to all-gender bathrooms, with adequate signage. Please implement all recommendations outlined in this proposal.

Lack of access to public bathrooms unnecessarily hinders people with disabilities and dehumanizes unsheltered people. Please implement all recommendations outlined in The Proposal.

Access to public bathrooms is a matter of equity, safety, and public health. In 2017, San Diego County faced a hepatitis A outbreak, which resulted in the deaths of 20 people. More recently, the COVID pandemic once again highlighted the importance of accessible hand-washing stations in public spaces. It's vital that the County takes action to improve public health and increase access to restrooms for all.

The lack of public bathrooms pose unnecessary challenges for workers on the go, people with disabilities, and families who cannot access diaper changing stations. We need more bathrooms open more hours across the county. Counting on private establishments does not work for the poor who cannot afford to purchase something.

Access to public bathrooms is a matter of dignity. And a part of health & public safety. San Diego County was already at the center of this issue when the Hepatitis A outbreak a few years ago, and we need to be proactive at this issue. We need more public bathroom facilities to prevent this situation from happening again.

The Safer At School Early Alert Program (UCSD Wertheim School of Public Health) is the *main reason* I felt confident sending my children back to the classroom for Fall 2021. This wastewater testing initiative allows our school communities to be informed about ongoing COVID infections without disrupting classes or encouraging lockdowns; so kids stay in school!
