Sounds a bit like a Flash Sale. $175 mil of our taxes, big chunk of our tax money, for 16 contracts worth up to $6 mil. That is $96 mil - so $79 mil. extra in the worst case, probably more, though. Why are we paying for this graft rather than Genral Services returning periodically if more funds are needed.

The rest could be going to an emergency fund instead of a construction fund when people are fleeing the State, low-income people are going hungry, and crime is rising.

But it sounds like the Board wants the General Services Director to have absolute discretion over the money without a vote. Reeks of corruption.
