Subject: [External] San Diego Board of Supervisors Extended Term Limits
Date: Wednesday, May 13, 2026 7:09:55 PM

Dear Board Members,

As a resident and citizen within San Diego, I want to make known my opposition to the board's proposal to modify the charter and extend term limits for the board of supervisors from two-term limits to three, from eight years to 12.

We need less rather than more of career politicians. It's not a healthy state without the refreshing of ideas and people.

To go further, the board of supervisors shouldn't even have the authority to make this change. It should require a public vote. It's self serving.

Please do not pursue this measure.

Sincerely,
Chris Anderson
