I am a volunteer at Asian Solidarity Collective. I suport the resolution to advance criminal justice reform, protect public safety, provide equitable alternatives to incarceration for all, and invest in root causes of behavioral health conditions and poverty. Inappropriate and ineffective incarceration of individuals who do not pose a public safety threat diverts resources away from other public services. Invest in our communities by providing support in mental and behavioral health.

I want to thank Vice-Chair Nora Vargas, Supervisor Terra Lawson-Remer, and their teams for putting together "A RESOLUTION TO ADVANCE CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM, PROTECT PUBLIC SAFETY, PROVIDE EQUITABLE ALTERNATIVES TO INCARCERATION FOR ALL, AND INVEST IN ROOT CAUSES OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CONDITIONS AND POVERTY." We know public safety (crime already at historic lows) can be increased with better human/community economic & social support, so I'm glad our Supervisors are taking action to this just end.

I am a member of the Racial Justice Coalition and the Encinitas Equity Committee. Investment in Community-based treatment resources is essential in ending the revolving door of incarceration for those with mental illness and substance use disorders. The inequitable impact on communities of color cannot be measured. I applaud Supervisors Lawson-Remer and Vargas for their forward looking proposal and urge the Board to fully support it. The jails are not treatment programs!

Placing people in prison doesn't not solve the health and economic issues that are the root of the problem. I support this resolution to find different alternatives.

For the agenda item 4, I support the resolution to advance criminal justice reform and provide equitable alternatives to incarceration for all. We should not put individuals with mental health problems in jail. Instead, we should give appropriate treatment to those individuals.

I am all for criminal justice reform! Let's changing the narrative. Let's empower the people. Let's encourage fathers to stay and be involved. Children who grow up in fatherless homes are 2X's as likely to be incarcerated. MNPSYCH.org Let's get back to teaching truth. Let's not do what the governor did and raise the threshold for felonies so there would be less arrests. Releasing criminals is also not the answer 30% were released during c-19. mostly sex offenders. Not the solution.

Too many vulnerable people are being swept into prison due to our emphasis on incarceration. We need to invest in all of our communities and make sure that all of our people can thrive. We need to stop punishing poor people and we need to address the root causes of poverty and behavior.

I support Supervisor Lawson-Remer and Vice Chair Vargas's resolution to advance alternatives to incarceration for all, and notably people of color, who are often inappropriately overrepresented in the criminal justice system. Investing in root causes of behavioral health conditions and poverty will significantly improve community quality of life and save County funds currently spent on inappropriate incarceration.

My name is Alexander Han and I am a member of Asian Solidarity Collective. I am in favor of the resolution to advance criminal justice reform, protect public safety, provide equitable alternatives to incarceration for all, and invest in root causes of behavioral health conditions and poverty. Jail is often used as a first-line response to issues that are caused by public health problems and poverty – disproportionately impacting poor, disabled LGBTQ+, BIPOC and people experiencing homelessness.
