This item should be in the discussion section, not on the consent calendar. A rules amendment is not routine,

Allowing electronic filing of an assessment appeal would certainly quicken the appeals process and reduce the anxiety from the long wait for the appellant. Setting a prehearing (section 5.2(a) is good, but I don't know why a commercial applicant needs to wait a year. You should be making the process faster for everyone especially for local small businesses.

I also think there should be a time required for providing findings (sec, 8) so that the process is not unreasonably delayed by foot-dragging or otherwise.

Not sure I like substituting 'them' for 'him or her.' I would rather deal with a person whose gender is known.

But this rule change is a good start.
