The report says there will be declining revenue due to the tobacco tax, but does not seem to offer any proposals as to how to make up this loss, or how to maintain financing for what seems to be the same slate of programs as last year.

The financial issues are major. The First 5 report should have a plan to maintain financing more than just “Leverage new and existing funding sources from across sectors to ensure the long-term sustainability of operations. (p. 10)” You should have a good idea of how First 5 plans to do this. Otherwise, you will probably have to make room in your budget to at some point replicate these services.
