It is encouraging two organizations are presenting. Hopefully avoiding bias. The public deserves and expects the facts without subjectivity.

I am glad that there are two organizations presenting this. Makes it less likely that it will be factually one-sided, or use old or misleading data.

One must remember that this administration is new and, like most campaigns, has made a lot of promises to its base, which may or may not work out. So keep an open mind and do not let fear control your actions.

And I must also say that I am disappointed to see not even a partial presentation as of Wed. 1/22.
