It is good that MHSA has $479 million estimated available funding for FY 2025-6 (p. A-41) with a projected unspent balance of $176 mil, but I find it odd that with all of the claimed need for mental health services and clinics, there are no dollars set aside for capital facilities and tech needs.

For instance, wouldn't it be prudent to establish a few mental health clinics in underserved areas or areas where druggies or homeless gather to hopefully reduce crime and the danger of wildfires?

And why does Children's School Based Full Service Partnership (FSP) have a $47mil budget, over ¼ of the FSP budget?
