Who came up with the idea to rename? There has been no "miracle" by the Padres at this time. No name change just because of the Padres donation - hopefully their donation is not dependent on a name change. This board always "yells" inclusivity...what better way than to keep the name "Miracle Field", specifically for individuals with disabilities. Please maintain the tradition and the honoring and recognition of the individuals who enjoy the park now and in the future.

The big question is why are you naming a park in San Dieguito "Padres Park." Someone who comes from that area should be renaming a local park. Yet there is no mention of whether the people who use the park want to do this in the Board Letter. And I wonder if the Padres would sue over the County use of their name in a somewhat distant location?

The name "Miracle field is more appropriate to games featuring disabled players and its use by a baseball league named "Miracle League" re-enforces this.
