Chief Roxana Kennedy
Chula Vista Police Department
315 Fourth Avenue
Chula Vista, CA 91910

Dear Chief Kennedy:

On behalf of the San Diego County Sheriff's Department, I would like to thank you for your donation of $76,104.08 from the City of Chula Vista's Incarcerated Person Welfare Fund (IPWF) to the general fund of the San Diego Sheriff's Department. These donated funds will aid the Sheriff's Department in the expansion of landscape and horticulture projects, enhance food to table models, and increase composting efforts that promote sustainable agricultural practices. This will enable individuals to learn about various sustainable techniques while also promoting the adoption of environmentally friendly practices while aiming to build a more sustainable future. One of the main purchases will be tower gardens for Las Colinas and East Mesa Detention and Reentry Facilities, so they can enhance their farm to table programs.

Thank you again, for thinking of our incarcerated population and the advancement of their programs. Your donation is accepted with the deepest appreciation from the Sheriff's Department and specifically by the persons in custody.

The County Taxpayer ID is 95-6000934. No goods or services were received in exchange of this charitable contribution.

Sincerely,

Kelly A. Martinez, Sheriff
