Measure G banned a type of labor agreement known as a "Project Labor Agreement" or PLA. PLAs require contractors to pay all workers at union scale HIGHER wages and benefits adding cost of contract. Typically, unions support PLAs, and building contractors oppose PLAs. When the buildings in question are being built with public dollars, whether or not to have a PLA also matters to taxpayers.

Greetings, Elected Government Officials.

Mr. Curry brings up, among many others in his email, a good point about this garbage collection problem in his email below to all of you dated today.

A prompt response would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
Andres Wong

Measure G banned a type of labor agreement known as a "Project Labor Agreement" or PLA. PLAs require contractors to pay all workers at union scale HIGHER wages and benefits adding cost of contract. Typically, unions support PLAs, and building contractors oppose PLAs. When the buildings in question are being built with public dollars, whether or not to have a PLA also matters to taxpayers.

Hi There,

I've checked out the great info you've compiled on sandiegocounty.gov/content/sdc/hhsa/programs/bhs/mental_health_resources.html and wanted to see if you would like to add another resource to your page.

Today's teenagers face risks that no other generation has, as social media has brought the social pressures of adolescence into teens' most private spaces. In this environment, social media safety for teens is essential. Safety starts with parents, teachers, counselors, and caregivers understanding what teenagers have access to. We created a helpful guide on all of this. Check it out here:

Social Media Safety for Teens: classactionu.org/teen-safety/

I think this resource would be a great addition for your readers to see and would love to hear your thoughts.

If you do not want to receive anymore emails from me, please reply letting me know you're not interested.

Thank you so much for your time!

Jimmy
