Thanks, Mark.

Nadia, you will want to edit the Board letter then (in Background, page 4) to say that

~~“Beginning in Fiscal Year 2022-23,~~ Those fees will be reinstated at the rates approved in today's requested Board action when the ordinance is enacted on July 14.”

Holly,

Since this isn't an urgency ordinance, it won't take effect until July 14 (if enacted on June 14), so it looks like no delay would be needed by Sheriff.

Hi Mark,

I just want to confirm – the fee increases can go into effect right away (upon adoption of the ordinances on June 14) and the Sheriff will delay collecting per the background of the letter, pg 4 until July 1: “Beginning in Fiscal Year 2022-23, those fees will be reinstated at the rates approved in today's requested Board action.”

Thanks.
