I, Lauren Pichard, being of sound mind and over the age of 18, hereby declare, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, as follows:

The factual summaries of third-party cases referenced herein are based on their self-reported experiences. I have not independently investigated or verified the full facts of each third-party account. The summary of Eleanor Ballester's circumstances has been prepared to the best of our ability based on available information, given her current detention and limited access.

This Affidavit is made in good faith based on the information provided to me, my direct knowledge, and public records where available. I hereby demand investigations into these matters based on the seriousness of the allegations and their potential violations of constitutional, civil rights, and harm to innocent persons and minor children.
