If you really want to keep unethical or illegal polling activity down, why wait 30 days after the poll to publish the contract and scope, polling questions, demographics, and the results. Especially the results. I know some people who can hardly wait, mainly those who want to send off Board Letters supporting this or that without actually giving solid evidence that the County supports the idea.

This is a Great start to promoting transparency in knowing who supports all of the stuff that goes around here.
