3 starting or anticipated cases. Not hard to guess what THEY are.

Vera Skop vs. School District – a Real Property - Eminent Domain lawsuit. Apparently, the La Mesa School District caused a culvert to overflow, rendering the property unusable. Not sure how the County is involved. But if your culvert, better to fess up & settle.

Sumana Forest Retreat v. County – Sumana was a religious retreat ‘deep’ in the forest in Valley Center, and wanted to set up yurts which were subject to County zoning and SDGE said were hazardous and shut off the electricity. Sounds like the yurts are a hazard and should be altered or removed, religious or not.

Sierra Club v. County – a self-inflicted wound resulting from approval of the Harmony Grove South development despite a fire chief testifying that it should not be approved. Mainly, there were inadequate evac. Routes. County should drop or settle this silly case. There are so many mor important causes worth your time.
