Hi Supervisors,

The worst thing you can do is attempt to recycle lithium ion batteries. "As soon as they get compacted, they burst into flames," [Recycling Center Gen Mgr.] McGrath said. Laptop and cell phone batteries are exploding at recycling centers and on trucks nationwide. McGrath said they've had "large fires" because of laptop and cell phone batteries.

I wrote (to you, actually) a month ago: "The weather has been noticeably cooler for a few days. You would think that this would help the wildfire control. Yet this morning, the 14th, the three big fires near LA and OC, are still raging virtually uncontained: the Bridge fire at 53K acres, 3% containment; the Airport fire at 23K acres, 9% containment; the Line fire at 38K acres, 25% containment.

Temperatures for 9/11 in San Dimas (Bridge fire) got down to the upper 50's; San Bernardino (Line fire) and Rancho Santa Margarita (Airport fire) got down to the 60's.

These fires should be on the way out. It is time, maybe past time, to study whether EV's and battery storage facilities (BESS) are contributing to the fires' staying power, especially with lithium's ability to spontaneously combust multiple times.

AND THESE FIRES ARE STILL GOING! Depleting our water, costing money, using firefighter resources and lives.

I'm glad SD Fire-Rescue has a new division which will make us safer, but we need to get to the root of the problem – that lithium-ion batteries are inherently unsafe and require special measures, like putting them in safe areas (BESS platforms out to sea?) and requiring a durable casing to contain any fire or leakage.

Thanks to Jim for recognizing the need for BESS safety standards. Hope the measure gets re-introduced ASAP, so we can control these fires BEFORE they happen and not waste resources on controlling them after.

Regards,

Paul Henkin

With lithium-ion battery fires on the rise, San Diego Fire Rescue gets region's 1st response coordinator

Story by Kelvin Henry [10-9-2024]

Local first responders, like those around the nation, have been dealing with a spate of lithium-ion battery-related fires recently.

“We see fires that are involving lithium-ion batteries approximately three times a week in the city of San Diego alone,” said San Diego Fire-Rescue Battalion Chief Rob Rezende said. “Most of them are from e-bikes, e-scooters, hoverboards, vape pens.”

[I hope these aren't the E-bikes SANDAG gave away]

There have been multiple fires at battery energy storage facilities in San Diego County recently, as well, including one in Otay Mesa.

“That fire, we were there for 14 days,” Rezende said. “That was a robust response with significant impacts to the fire department where Cal Fire had to dedicate a significant number of resources for 14 days to manage that incident.”

Rezende, who is the region’s first Alternative-Energy Emergency Response Coordinator, is leading the way in the region’s efforts to understand and train first responders in the complex task of fighting lithium-battery-related fires.

“This is a grant-funded position through the Department of Homeland Security about primarily addressing anything related to alternative energy,” Rezende said. “As we move electrification and alternative sources that are not hydrocarbon-based power sources, there are additional challenges.”

The complex fires often associated with an energy source are of concern, according to Rezende.

“It’s kind of a combination of every kind of fire we can encounter all at once — becomes very difficult to manage,” Rezende said, “in addition to the fact that it’s going through a chemical process inside the battery, which really can’t be stopped. The easiest way to think about that is kind of like a positive feedback loop, meaning I have the chemistry starts to speed up, which heats up the chemistry, which then causes it to speed up again, and then it heats it up more. And it just keeps doing that and positive feedback – kind of like feedback on a microphone and a speaker.”

Local experts believe that their understanding of how to fight lithium-ion battery-related fires and improving technology with those batteries will lead to better results in the future.

“I think 20 years in the future, we are going to look back and say, ‘We’ve made some improvements and now we know how to handle these things,’ ” Rezende said.

Good Morning,

I attended the SANDAG meeting last Friday concerning the 126 Toll.

THANK YOU SAN DIEGO REP VIVIAN MORENO

YOUR POWERFUL STATEMENTS PLEASE DO PRESS INTERVIEWS!

My own city council member Chula Vista Carolina Chavez SANDAG Rep should be speaking up Correlate that SR125 was promised as a FREEway and never a Toll Road. SANDAG bought SR125 with TRANSNET funds which seemed to fulfill the 2004 Transnet ballot language; BUT THEN THE MONEY WENT TO CREDITORS TOLL NEVER REMOVED!

SANDAG did NOT spend the $265 Million to expand 805 as promised by the TRANSNET Tax; that $265 Million money should immediate pay off the SR125 toll and close the books and STOP TRIPLE TAXING (TRANSNET TAX, SB1 GAS TAX AND TOLL) SOUTH BAY COMMUTERS!

- Board approved acquisition to improve mobility in southern region by:
  - reducing traffic congestion on parallel links, such as the I-805
  - reducing need for infrastructure improvements on parallel links (saving $265M) 805 5 FREEWAY
  - lowering toll rates (by 25% to 40%) to attract and grow usage of the toll road

ONE MONTH AFTER APPROVAL REMOVE TOLL BY 2027 SANDAG INSTALLS NEW TOLL READERS THE CAUSE TOLL MISCHARGES!

"APRIL 2022 - The South Bay Expressway opened in 2007 and runs from Otay Mesa to Spring Valley. SANDAG purchased the lease from a private company to operate the road for more than $340 million, and still owes about $180 million in bond payments. There have been recent calls to stop collecting tolls well before then. Chula Vista Mayor and SANDAG board member Mary Casillas Salas wants a new financial plan that would end tolls by 2027, and state Sen. Ben Hueso introduced a bill earlier this year that would help SANDAG pay off its debt and put the road under the control of the California Department of Transportation."

TRAFFIC ENDANGER NEIGHBORHOOD STREETS

"Somebody's going to get killed," said resident Judy Tieber. Drivers trying to avoid paying tolls on state Route 125 are using neighborhood streets to get to and from state Route 54. "With the toll road, 125, traffic on this road has jumped to 7,000-8,000 cars a day. It's all for one reason, it's called toll road avoidance." The problem is especially dangerous near Sunnyside Elementary School, where the marquee out front tells drivers to slow down. The committee says that's one of their primary concerns. "In the afternoon or the morning when school's getting out, this whole roadway's full of cars with people crossing the street going to school," said Mike Clowers. "Drivers need to know; this is a neighborhood, not a freeway."

SANDAG 2025 PLAN

REMOVE FOUR LANES 805

CONVERT TO MANAGED TOLL LANES

I-805 MANAGED LANES FACT SHEET

The Project

The Interstate 805 (I-805) Managed Lanes, estimated to cost $2.7 billion, will create a 27-mile Managed Lanes facility in the median of I-805 between State Route 905 (SR 905) and Interstate 5 (I-5).

Project Costs

The total cost for this project is estimated at $2.7 billion (2006 dollars). This includes an estimated $26.3 million for preliminary engineering studies and implementation of

The Need

I-805 is the backbone of mobility in the urban core of the San Diego region. It is a key north-south corridor that traverses the most heavily populated portion of the region. Average daily traffic on I-805 ranges from 110,000 to 250,000 vehicles with daily congestion lasting between two and four hours. Demand on this corridor is expected to exceed 330,000 vehicles in 2030 with congestion lasting over six hours.

Project Elements

- » Four Managed Lanes
- » Multiple access points between the Managed Lanes and general purpose lanes.
- » Direct access ramps for buses and other high occupancy vehicles.
- » Continuous Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) service will be operated on Managed Lanes (i.e. South Bay BRT).
- » Solo drivers also will be able to pay a per trip fee to use the lanes. This Managed Lanes technique has been successfully used in the region, providing additional funds for transit service.

Good Morning,

I attended the SANDAG meeting last Friday concerning the 126 Toll.

My own city council member Chula Vista Carolina Chavez SANDAG Rep should be speaking up Correlate that SR125 was promised as a FREEway and never a Toll Road. - Board approved acquisition to improve mobility in southern region by:

"APRIL 2022 - The South Bay Expressway opened in 2007 and runs from Otay Mesa to Spring Valley. SANDAG purchased the lease from a private company to operate the road for more than $340 million, and still owes about $180 million in bond payments. There have been recent calls to stop collecting tolls well before then. Chula Vista Mayor and SANDAG board member Mary Casillas Salas wants a new financial plan that would end tolls by 2027, and state Sen. Ben Hueso introduced a bill earlier this year that would help SANDAG pay off its debt and put the road under the control of the California Department of Transportation."

"Somebody's going to get killed," said resident Judy Tieber. Drivers trying to avoid paying tolls on state Route 125 are using neighborhood streets to get to and from state Route 54. "With the toll road, 125, traffic on this road has jumped to 7,000-8,000 cars a day. It's all for one reason, it's called toll road avoidance." The problem is especially dangerous near Sunnyside Elementary School, where the marquee out front tells drivers to slow down. The committee says that's one of their primary concerns. "In the afternoon or the morning when school's getting out, this whole roadway's full of cars with people crossing the street going to school," said Mike Clowers. "Drivers need to know; this is a neighborhood, not a freeway."

The Project

The Interstate 805 (I-805) Managed Lanes, estimated to cost $2.7 billion, will create a 27-mile Managed Lanes facility in the median of I-805 between State Route 905 (SR 905) and Interstate 5 (I-5).

Project Costs

The total cost for this project is estimated at $2.7 billion (2006 dollars). This includes an estimated $26.3 million for preliminary engineering studies and implementation of

The Need

I-805 is the backbone of mobility in the urban core of the San Diego region. It is a key north-south corridor that traverses the most heavily populated portion of the region. Average daily traffic on I-805 ranges from 110,000 to 250,000 vehicles with daily congestion lasting between two and four hours. Demand on this corridor is expected to exceed 330,000 vehicles in 2030 with congestion lasting over six hours.

Project Elements

- » Four Managed Lanes
- » Multiple access points between the Managed Lanes and general purpose lanes.
- » Direct access ramps for buses and other high occupancy vehicles.
- » Continuous Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) service will be operated on Managed Lanes (i.e. South Bay BRT).
- » Solo drivers also will be able to pay a per trip fee to use the lanes. This Managed Lanes technique has been successfully used in the region, providing additional funds for transit service.

Industrial Parks Canada, Pan Pacific Toronto Mar 2025-Premailer

The rapid expansion of e-commerce coupled with prominent population growth is boosting the demand for industrial zones in major cities like Toronto and Montreal, where property prices are among the fastest-growing globally. Despite the addition of a record-breaking 16.3 million square feet of new industrial space to the Canadian market in the final quarter of 2023, demand continues to surpass supply, according to a recent report. This imbalance is particularly evident in major cities throughout the region, where the low availability of industrial space highlights the intense demand. Welland, a city in Southern Ontario, has recently announced that it has exhausted its city-owned industrial land inventory. The sale of the last parcel in the River Road Industrial Park has led the city to explore options for developing new industrial parks to accommodate ongoing demand.

In a testament to the burgeoning industrial market, Dow, a leader in the chemical industry, has committed CAD 8.8 billion to Alberta's Industrial Heartland, projecting an annual core profit growth of CAD 1 billion once fully operational. With the surge in these investments, real estate developers and managers are seizing every opportunity to acquire and develop both existing and new industrial property projects without delay. In a recent news, global asset manager TPG has acquired a 75% stake in a CAD 1.3 billion industrial park portfolio in Canada, previously owned by Oxford Properties. This move reflects the increasing traction and investment in the industrial sector as stakeholders seek to capitalize on the limited availability of industrial properties while eyeing for new development opportunities.

Join us at the Industrial Parks Canada and navigate these trends and explore the future of industrial development. Industry leaders from across the region will share insights on best practices and strategies for developing and maintaining industrial estates. Attendees will gain valuable knowledge about the latest policies, regulations, and incentives impacting industrial parks, and learn how to adhere these frameworks to maximize benefits for all stakeholders involved.

WHY YOU CANNOT MISS THIS EVENT

- Identifying strategies for integrating industrial estates into existing urban environments
- Discussing developers-operators partnership for industrial build-to-suit projects
- Navigating complex zoning laws, environmental regulations, and building codes
- Analyzing the future of logistics real estate demand

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

Hi All,

I bet the solution is simple and something we can and should do. All this government fussing is doing very little except wearing us out.

I have suggested at least 4 things: concrete lining to speed water flow and sewage out to sea; holding ponds or reservoirs like there once were; hand-held air pollution monitors to zero in on the pollution source; and baking soda or lime to cut down on the harmful odors.

I have written to the Supervisors, referrals, others.

I'm sure many others have good ideas. So let's work together and just do it!

Regards,

Paul Henkin

SANDAG ammended and voted to include the sewage crisis as part of to the $Billions Otay Mesa Crossing agreement. Just a nother useless study no teeth to force Mexico to stop their untreated sewage dumping on our beaches. "Upon a motion by Councilmember Fisher, and a second by Councilmember Duncan, the Board voted to

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of “concerningly high” levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. “As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk,” she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

A standard particle filter is not designed to remove gases and odors. For gas and odor removal, masks should be equipped with a filter that includes ACTIVATED CARBON.

OSHA - "Gas masks are also known as "air-purifying respirators" because they filter or clean chemical gases out of the air as you breathe. This respirator includes a facepiece or mask, and a cartridge or canister. Straps secure the facepiece to the head. The cartridge may also have a filter to remove particles. Gas masks are effective only if used with the correct cartridge or filter (these terms are often used interchangeably) for a particular biological or chemical substance. Selecting the proper filter can be a complicated process. There are cartridges available that protect against more than one hazard, but there is no "all-in-one" cartridge that protects against all substances. Cartridges that contain charcoal or other chemicals for filtering the air should be kept in air-tight packages until use. If cartridges are open or not packed in air-tight packaging, they should not be used. Cartridges with activated charcoal also have a limited service life; they must be changed periodically during use; AVERAGE OF ONE 8 HOUR SHIFT."

Hi All,

I bet the solution is simple and something we can and should do. All this government fussing is doing very little except wearing us out.

I have suggested at least 4 things: concrete lining to speed water flow and sewage out to sea; holding ponds or reservoirs like there once were; hand-held air pollution monitors to zero in on the pollution source; and baking soda or lime to cut down on the harmful odors.

I have written to the Supervisors, referrals, others.

I'm sure many others have good ideas. So let's work together and just do it!

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

OSHA - "Gas masks are also known as "air-purifying respirators" because they filter or clean chemical gases out of the air as you breathe. This respirator includes a facepiece or mask, and a cartridge or canister. Straps secure the facepiece to the head. The cartridge may also have a filter to remove particles. Gas masks are effective only if used with the correct cartridge or filter (these terms are often used interchangeably) for a particular biological or chemical substance. Selecting the proper filter can be a complicated process. There are cartridges available that protect against more than one hazard, but there is no "all-in-one" cartridge that protects against all substances. Cartridges that contain charcoal or other chemicals for filtering the air should be kept in air-tight packages until use. If cartridges are open or not packed in air-tight packaging, they should not be used. Cartridges with activated charcoal also have a limited service life; they must be changed periodically during use; AVERAGE OF ONE 8 HOUR SHIFT."

Hi All,

I bet the solution is simple and something we can and should do. All this government fussing is doing very little except wearing us out.

I have suggested at least 4 things: concrete lining to speed water flow and sewage out to sea; holding ponds or reservoirs like there once were; hand-held air pollution monitors to zero in on the pollution source; and baking soda or lime to cut down on the harmful odors.

I have written to the Supervisors, referrals, others.

I'm sure many others have good ideas. So let's work together and just do it!

Paul Henkin

Good Afternoon,

SANDAG PASSED AMMENDMENT MONTHS AGO BORDER SEWAGE WORK GROUP "STUDY" OTAY MESA BINATIONAL BORDER AGREEMENT
DID NOT INCLUDE MEXICO FORCE STOP SEWAGE DUMPING AS PART OF NEGOTIATION!

SANDAG ammended and voted to include the sewage crisis as part of to the $Billions Otay Mesa Crossing agreement. Just a nother useless study no teeth to force Mexico to stop their untreated sewage dumping on our beaches. "Upon a motion by Councilmember Fisher, and a second by Councilmember Duncan, the Board voted to direct the CEO develop a temporary working group to address environmental concerns, including but not limited to transborder sewage issues in the border region and to adopt Resolution No. 2024 - 32, approving the Binational Agreements for State Route 11/Otay Mesa East Port of Entry. The motion passed unanimous vote."

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

Subject: [External] Re: BoS SPECIAL MEETING TOMORROW WITH NO PUBLIC INPUT
Date: Friday, October 18, 2024 3:12:37 PM

Hello All,

I am disturbed that Once Again, the Board of Supervisors has called a special meeting with was no posted time for the public to address the meeting. This is a disservice to the public and may deprive the Board of the diverse opinions the public may provide. It is also contrary to law. Coming 4 days after my last complaint, this is disgraceful.

I am glad, however, that the item is included for call-in public statements.

This repeated disregard for the public is one reason why the politicians are facing 'threatening' behavior. It is coming from both sides. I suggest that the government be the bigger person and show more respect for the people.

Agenda follows:

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

SPECIAL MEETING AGENDA

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2024, 8:00 AM

COUNTY ADMINISTRATION CENTER, ROOM 310

1600 PACIFIC HIGHWAY, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

Order Of Business

A. Roll Call

B. Statement (just cause) and/or Consideration of a Request to Participate Remotely (emergency circumstances) by a Supervisor, if applicable.

C. Discussion Items

DISCUSSION ITEM

1. SUBJECT: CLOSED SESSION (DISTRICTS: ALL)

A. CONFERENCE WITH LEGAL COUNSEL - ANTICIPATED LITIGATION

Significant exposure to litigation pursuant to paragraph 2 of subdivision (d) of Government Code section 54956.9: (Number of Potential Cases - 1)

The law:

Govt, Code 54954.3(a) Every agenda for regular meetings shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the legislative body on any item of interest to the public, before or during the legislative body's consideration of the item, that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body, provided that no action shall be taken on any item not appearing on the agenda unless the action is otherwise authorized by subdivision (b) of Section 54954.2. However, the agenda need not provide an opportunity for members of the public to address the legislative body on any item that has already been considered by a committee, composed exclusively of members of the legislative body, at a public meeting wherein all interested members of the public were afforded the opportunity to address the committee on the item, before or during the committee's consideration of the item, unless the item has been substantially changed since the committee heard the item, as determined by the legislative body. Every notice for a special meeting shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the legislative body concerning any item that has been described in the notice for the meeting before or during consideration of that item.

October 17, 2024

Dear Supervisors Nora Vargas, Joel Anderson, Terra Lawson-Remer, Monica Montgomery Steppe, and Jim Desmond:

The County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) has planned a park called the Bonsall Community Park. It is in the middle of the San Luis Rey River Park. Bonsall Community Park shares a boundary with the San Luis Rey River Park's (SLRRP) historical trail from Oceanside to RT15, 18 miles round trip.

The Equestrian Community has had many meetings with DPR requesting an Equestrian Staging Area in Bonsall Community Park. We have met with the Fallbrook Planning Group and the Bonsall Community Sponsor Group, both of which are supportive of horses in the park, equestrian staging for our trucks and trailers, along with other amenities.

The community outreach for the Bonsall Community Park was flawed; it did not include the main users and focus groups in the area. Community outreach took place during Covid, with the final concept determined in November of 2020.

The Bonsall Community Park is in the center of SLRRP's historical 18-mile round trip trail. Community interest includes citizens from Oceanside to RT15 and North into Fallbrook.

DPR has a final plan for the Bonsall Community Park, accommodating every user group BUT equestrians, as they do not include an equestrian staging area.

The project has gone out to bid for phase one. The community has been informed that funding is limited, and some of the Bonsall Community Park will not be completed: the dog park, skate park, and bike park in particular. That leaves space for Equestrian Staging and other low cost amenities that the equestrian community needs to safely and comfortably ride the San Luis Rey historical trail. Note: Most Equestrians will not want to ride for 18 miles in one day. They will require access to water and a restroom. A staging area in the middle of the trail system is important for both equestrian and equine. Current plans will need to be modified.

We need the following amenities provided for the large Equestrian Community in this area: Equestrian only parking, a safer alternative to parking on the street or using the school or church's parking lots (this parking area needs to be DG not paved), a few hitching posts and access to running water for the horses, corrals 12 x 12, a few picnic tables, access to restrooms, a round pen, and equestrian arena at least 120 feet by 250 feet. Walnut Grove Park is a good example of a park that includes active sports with equestrian use. Santa Margarita County Preserve is a good example of equestrian parking.

I hope you can support our requested amendments to DPR's park plans to include equestrian use.

Sincerely,

Michele Ness

Subject: [External] NO ON PROP G, NO SANDAG TAXES, NEW REASON
Date: Monday, October 21, 2024 10:19:45 AM

Dear Editors,

Here's another reason we don't need Prop G, the ½ cent sales tax for SANDAG. Keep feeding a spoiled child money, and he/she will only ask for more. And waste it.

The SANDAG Auditor released a new report 10/11. On the SR125 toll mess where tolls were repeatedly mischarged and the Board was not notified for 6 or 7 years, SANDAG is still trying to reconcile data from the ETAN system that was broken from the start. It still cannot tell, on a daily basis, that all systems are operating correctly, which is basic to the whole scheme. If the system cannot be verified, the toll should be removed.

The Auditor recommended last year "The Board should consider a policy that requires a Board report when a multimillion-dollar project is failing to meet its deadlines and deliverables..." This is not started and there is no estimated completion. I think it would be simpler to require that SANDAG makes sure it hires honest people with a demonstrated track record of admitting their mistakes.

I'd hate to be the lawyer who has to defend a system which broke and the owner has not even started to make sure that the new system works.

And this is probably taking time and resources away from the Auditor looking at/improving new issues.

Regards,

Paul Henkin

OSHA - "Gas masks are also known as "air-purifying respirators" because they filter or clean chemical gases out of the air as you breathe. This respirator includes a facepiece or mask, and a cartridge or canister. Straps secure the facepiece to the head. The cartridge may also have a filter to remove particles. Gas masks are effective only if used with the correct cartridge or filter (these terms are often used interchangeably) for a particular biological or chemical substance. Selecting the proper filter can be a complicated process. There are cartridges available that protect against more than one hazard, but there is no "all-in-one" cartridge that protects against all substances. Cartridges that contain charcoal or other chemicals for filtering the air should be kept in air-tight packages until use. If cartridges are open or not packed in air-tight packaging, they should not be used. Cartridges with activated charcoal also have a limited service life; they must be changed periodically during use; AVERAGE OF ONE 8 HOUR SHIFT."

Hi All,

I bet the solution is simple and something we can and should do. All this government fussing is doing very little except wearing us out.

I have suggested at least 4 things: concrete lining to speed water flow and sewage out to sea; holding ponds or reservoirs like there once were; hand-held air pollution monitors to zero in on the pollution source; and baking soda or lime to cut down on the harmful odors.

I have written to the Supervisors, referrals, others.

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

OSHA - "Gas masks are also known as "air-purifying respirators" because they filter or clean chemical gases out of the air as you breathe. This respirator includes a facepiece or mask, and a cartridge or canister. Straps secure the facepiece to the head. The cartridge may also have a filter to remove particles. Gas masks are effective only if used with the correct cartridge or filter (these terms are often used interchangeably) for a particular biological or chemical substance. Selecting the proper filter can be a complicated process. There are cartridges available that protect against more than one hazard, but there is no "all-in-one" cartridge that protects against all substances. Cartridges that contain charcoal or other chemicals for filtering the air should be kept in air-tight packages until use. If cartridges are open or not packed in air-tight packaging, they should not be used. Good Afternoon,

SANDAG PASSED AMMENDMENT MONTHS AGO BORDER SEWAGE WORK GROUP "STUDY" OTAY MESA BINATIONAL BORDER AGREEMENT DID NOT INCLUDE MEXICO FORCE STOP SEWAGE DUMPING AS PART OF NEGOTIATION!

SANDAG ammended and voted to include the sewage crisis as part of to the $Billions Otay Mesa Crossing agreement. Just a nother useless study no teeth to force Mexico to stop their untreated sewage dumping on our beaches. "Upon a motion by Councilmember Fisher, and a second by Councilmember Duncan, the Board voted to direct the CEO develop a temporary working group to address environmental concerns, including but not limited to transborder sewage issues in the border region and to adopt Resolution No. 2024 - 32, approving the Binational Agreements for State Route 11/Otay Mesa East Port of Entry. The motion passed unanimous vote."

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of “concerningly high” levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. “As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk,” she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

"Researchers studying the health and environmental impacts of the cross-border sewage crisis said Friday they are pulling their teams collecting air and water samples in southern San Diego County communities because of "concerningly high" levels of hydrogen sulfide, a toxic gas. According to emails between researchers from UC San Diego and San Diego State University, the decision came late Friday morning from Kim Prather, director of the Center for Aerosol Impacts on Chemistry of the Environment at UC San Diego and principal investigator on a 2023 study about sewage in waters off Imperial Beach becoming airborne. "As you know, I feel strongly about solving this problem, but cannot in good conscience continue to put my own people at this level of risk," she wrote to members of a task force studying the impacts of the sewage crisis. Moments later, Prather advised her team to stay in hotels outside South County. Prather said her team, which collects data around the clock, found levels of hydrogen sulfide — one of the main chemical components of sewer gas — to be persistently and dramatically above the state standard throughout the night and into the early morning hours Friday. The rotten egg odors characteristically associated with the gas were especially unbearable Thursday, according to her team and numerous reports from the public, who said odors infiltrated their air conditioners and their carbon monoxide alarms went off late at night or early in the morning."

A standard particle filter is not designed to remove gases and odors. For gas and odor removal, masks should be equipped with a filter that includes ACTIVATED CARBON.

Hi Supervisors, Mayors,

How affordable is affordable. $3,000/month rent for a 3 BR apartment – that’s the market rate around here.

I guess the economically disadvantaged (those not protected by race, gender, or other legal norms) will just have to settle for those ‘bargain’ $900/month one-bedrooms. With a family of four in such a space, how soon before we call it a ghetto? Send more people to the more affordable areas?

2,000 units is great, but at those rates, it sounds like slow fix for homelessness. Maybe there needs to be a larger set-aside for truly affordable units, like 30 to 50% for people making less than 30% of the average median income. And honestly, we don't want to be forced into building ADU's in our backyards or welcoming tenants we may not have vetted as the Board of Supervisors recently suggested.

And then, the developer doesn't seem excited about building affordable units anyway.

Regards,

Paul Henkin

Community workshop held regarding 'Midway Rising' project

Story by Jaime Chambers [10-23-2024]

SAN DIEGO (FOX 5/KUSI) — The long-awaited Midway Rising project is in its full entitlement phase, designing out the nuances which will modernize the face of the sports arena area long beloved but starved for new investment for decades.

“Cities are living things and so now is the time to pivot to a new set of memories, a new set of opportunities,” said Jim Andersen, the Chief Development Officer at Chelsea Investment Corp.

The new 2,000 affordable housing units will be the most units of affordable housing ever created at one time in California.

“There will be a total of 4,250 units — 2,000 will be deed restricted for 50 years minimum,” said Andersen.

Renderings show one, two and three-bedroom apartments. One-bedroom affordable units are going for as little as $900 a month, while it goes up to $3,000 a month for a three-bedroom unit.

Some residents who live in the area have mixed emotions about eventual demolition of the sports arena, but say they also understand all things come to an end.

Andersen says first a new stadium will be built and then by 2026-2028 the full building plans will be finally launched.

“We’ll start a spade in the ground on market housing retail and some of the affordable housing as well,” said Andersen.

ATTACHMENT A – SUMMARY OF OPPORTUNITIES

EXPAND THE SMALL LOT SUBDIVISION PROGRAM To further promote the development of small lot subdivision projects, the Board may consider expanding the areas where these developments are allowed beyond what AB 803 allows. Specifically, expanding the areas where small lot developments are allowed to include all parcels within Vehicle Miles Traveled (VMT) Efficient and Infill areas with a density of 30 units per acre would extend the program...

[ $43560 \text{ ft}^2 / 30 = 1,452 \text{ ft}^2$ , (about the size of a 2BR with a tiny backyard in my HOA)]

CREATE A LOCAL ORDINANCE THAT ALLOWS FOR THE SEPARATE SALE OF ADUS WITH SPECIFIC CRITERIA BEYOND AB 1033 Develop a local ordinance to allow for the separate sale of ADUs with specific criteria for the County.

Finally, stakeholders expressed concerns about the potential conflicts within a two-party HOA. Although these would be civil disputes and not involve the County directly, state law requires inclusion of dispute resolution mechanisms in the HOA Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions (CC&Rs), and this requirement would apply under the County's local ordinance...

from the meeting minutes:

2. Received the materials for the Opportunities for Streamlining Affordable and Attainable Housing and directed staff to proceed with all the recommendations provided to develop the following: • Small Lot Subdivision Program • Senior Housing and Assisted Living Facility Program • Expanded By-Right Program • Development of a local Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) Ownership Opportunities Program

Subject: [External] PROP G - SALES TAX SCAM ON the BALLOT
Date: Wednesday, October 23, 2024 6:15:30 PM

Hi All,

I just got yet another flyer for Prop G, the Sales Tax on the ballot. It has a mercifully short list (this time) of good things it will do. To 'make up' for this, it has four huge printed sides instead of two. Hope everyone's mailbox was big enough!

So, the flyer says "Measure G includes a specific project list, independent citizen oversight, public disclosure, and annual financial audits."

Since it is a general tax, the fundholder, SANDAG, can legally spend the money on whatever happens to be a priority at the time, or even on whatever it wants. In fact, if you look at the actual list in section 22.519, 89% of the funds from this tax may be used on things other than the listed projects and only 7% on actual road maintenance. We literally don't know what we're voting on.

The tax will be run by by the San Diego County Regional Transportation Commission. This is basically the SANDAG Board of Directors per Public Utilities Code 132051 so do not think that it is independent.

SANDAG already does public disclosure. However, some people there have lied, cheated, and swindled us over the years and are on track to keep doing so. I've watched how they hide the truth, even for 6 years from its own Board of Directors.

And one of its techniques is to use old data, like 2021, some even earlier, made current by the use of estimates. So alot of it is to be taken with a grain of salt. But with three financial scandals in 2022, I don't think a once-a-year audit is enough.

The flyer says "Measure G funds go into a 'lockbox.': they aren't mixed with the County's general funds...If funds are misused, the oversight committee can refer to the DA for prosecution."

Time and time again, I've seen SANDAG shift funds around. I don't think a 'lockbox' will help. Moreover, we're talking about a committee, most SANDAG people, refer something, perhaps its own fault, to the DA, who can take forever to convict. WHAT A JOKE!

Finally, the flyer says "All measure G funds will be under local control. Every dollar raised brings $2 more from State and Federal government..." The way they have huge deficits and are basically broke, don't count on it. And I can't even count the times SANDAG does things simply because there is a State law.

Keep giving a spoiled kid more and more, and he/she will be back for even more. That's SANDAG. Our own kids and grandkids don't deserve this.

In fact, if you look at the actual list in section 22.519, 89% of the funds from this tax may be used on things other than the listed projects and only 7% on actual road maintenance. We literally don't know what we're voting on.

The tax will be run by by the San Diego County Regional Transportation Commission. This is basically the SANDAG Board of Directors per Public Utilities Code 132051 so do not think that it is independent.

SANDAG already does public disclosure. However, some people there have lied, cheated, and swindled us over the years and are on track to keep doing so. I've watched how they hide the truth, even for 6 years from its own Board of Directors.

And one of its techniques is to use old data, like 2021, some even earlier, made current by the use of estimates. So alot of it is to be taken with a grain of salt. But with three financial scandals in 2022, I don't think a once-a-year audit is enough.

The flyer says "Measure G funds go into a 'lockbox.': they aren't mixed with the County's general funds...If funds are misused, the oversight committee can refer to the DA for prosecution."

Time and time again, I've seen SANDAG shift funds around. I don't think a 'lockbox' will help. Moreover, we're talking about a committee, most SANDAG people, refer something, perhaps its own fault, to the DA, who can take forever to convict. WHAT A JOKE!

Finally, the flyer says "All measure G funds will be under local control. Every dollar raised brings $2 more from State and Federal government..." The way they have huge deficits and are basically broke, don't count on it. And I can't even count the times SANDAG does things simply because there is a State law.

Keep giving a spoiled kid more and more, and he/she will be back for even more. That's SANDAG. Our own kids and grandkids don't deserve this.

Hi Supervisors,

Looks like the EV requirements for 2035 are out the window – now a 58% ‘bargain’ compromise from the original 67%. But as of now, the ownership rate for non-hybrid EVs is a lowly 7.6%.

Alot of this is based on expense, so that also goes against the current equity push.

While this may seem to be a Conservative viewpoint, you cannot afford to overlook it like you do so many other sensible ideas at the Board from Jim on down.

So I would suggest you need to figure into your climate-activism inspired EV goals what is apparently growing opposition to electric.

EV's may contribute to CO<sup>2</sup> reduction a bit, but they are a danger to all, causing or prolonging wildfires and BESS fires, lithium mining pollution and abuses. So let's stop these BEFORE they happen and not waste resources on controlling them after.

Take a bold stance and do what is realistic, not the State or Governor's political goals.

Paul Henkin

Elite Democrats tried to force electric cars on American drivers. Now the rebellion is growing

Opinion by Stephen Moore [10-22-2024]

A strong case can be made that the worst thing that ever happened to the electric vehicle industry was Joe Biden. His strongarm tactics to force Americans to buy battery-operated cars have only stiffened consumer resolve not to purchase them. EV sales had been robust before Biden entered the White House, but the boomlet stalled as conservative voters rebelled and even ridiculed EVs as “Biden cars”.

While EVs have become popular in blue states like New York and California – where more than one-third of the sales have occurred – Red Staters have turned a thumbs down to these cars of the future.

That hasn't been the only setback.

Deloitte's Global Automotive Consumer Study recently found:

“Consumer interest in [traditional] Internal Combustion Engine vehicles is rebounding“ due to “affordability concerns” about $75,000 plug-in vehicles. Some 67 per cent of consumers said they prefer an internal combustion engine for their next vehicle purchase – up from 58 per cent last year. Just 6 per cent prefer pure EVs and 21 per cent prefer hybrids.

Back in March, the Environmental Protection Agency announced a new emissions rule only slightly less unachievable than its original pie-in-the-sky proposal, which mandated 67 per cent battery-electric vehicle sales by model year 2032 (currently only about 7.6 per cent of new car sales are non-hybrid EVs). But Biden’s base scenario is still that 56 per cent of all model year 2032 vehicle sales must be non-hybrid EVs. Worse yet, Biden would just allow 64 per cent of new vehicles sold in model year 2027 to be internal-combustion-only and just 29 per cent in model year 2032. It’s 84 per cent now.

As a consequence, the odds that a federal mandate of 67 per cent EV sales by the end of the decade could be achieved is about as likely as Trump and Kamala Harris kissing and making up after the election.

But Democrats remain oblivious to this cold reality and are still pursuing a total ban on gas cars by 2035. Many blue state politicians in California, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Oregon, Rhode Island, Virginia, and Washington have already ordered such an anti-choice policy.

What the politicians have lost sight of is that Americans have love affairs with their cars.

The auto industry also forgot that lesson as it followed government mandates to roll EVs off assembly lines without asking car buyers what they thought. As a consequence, companies like Ford have lost more than $30,000 for every EV they've sold. That's a business model from hell.

Meanwhile, Volvo was the first car manufacturer to pledge to sell only electric vehicles by 2030. Now it has joined a dozen other firms in scaling back its EV ambitions. Why? According to Volvo chief commercial officer Bjorn Annwall: "Fully electric cars also need to be profitable" so they must "adjust to reality". Ditto for about six or seven other major car companies.

Right now EVs are headed down the path of the infamous Ford Edsel that, in the 1950s, was supposed to be the can't-miss car of the future and became an historic flop with consumers.

What is perhaps most amazing about the stall out of EVs – except in very wealthy zip code areas, where driving a plug-in car has become a hoity-toity form of virtue signalling – is that the federal government is paying car buyers $7,500 to purchase them, subsidising their production with billions of dollars of grants, and giving all the choice parking spaces to EV owners. But Americans still aren't biting.

The irony of this flop is that polls and buying habits show that hybrids may be the next big thing. They reduce pollution levels and are convenient for consumers who want an electric battery for short distances and gas for long distance travel. (For the record, my wife and I own a hybrid.)

Yet foolishly the green movement wants none of this. Hybrids don't count in the mandates and are effectively treated as gas cars. This is because of an economically retarded commitment to "net zero" emissions policies. So instead of pushing car buyers towards vehicles that can cut emissions by as much as half – they'd rather try to bully people into cars they won't buy.

So we now have a policy in place that's bad for the environment, bad for taxpayers, bad for the US auto industry, and is having the opposite effect to the one that was hoped for. Yet 190 Democrats in the House recently voted en masse against an amendment to ease the unachievable EV mandates.

It's hard to believe that supposedly smart people have come up with such a dumb strategy.

EPA

Biden-Harris Administration finalizes strongest-ever pollution standards for cars that position U.S. companies and workers to lead the clean vehicle future, protect public health, address the climate crisis, save drivers money

“The future is electric. Automakers are committed to the EV transition – investing enormous amounts of capital and building cutting edge battery electric vehicles, plug-in hybrids, traditional hybrids and fuel cell vehicles that drive efficiency and convert petroleum miles to electric miles,” said John Bozzella, President and CEO, Alliance for Automotive Innovation. “Consumers have tons of choices. But pace matters. Moderating the pace of EV adoption in 2027, 2028, 2029 and 2030 was the right call because it prioritizes more reasonable electrification targets in the next few (very critical) years of the EV transition. These adjusted EV targets – still a stretch goal – should give the market and supply chains a chance to catch up. It buys some time for more public charging to come online, and the industrial incentives and policies of the Inflation Reduction Act to do their thing. And the big one? The rules are mindful of the importance of choice to drivers and preserves their ability to choose the vehicle that’s right for them.”

[Translation: unreasonable goals and they are still a challenging objective (meaning of ‘stretch goal’)]

Totally agree. SANDAG is getting too powerful and is wasting precious tax dollars on foolish ill-conceived projects. Management seems to be incapable of managing its various responsibilities. Time for a performance report.

Dear Editors,

Here's another reason we don't need Prop G, the ½ cent sales tax for SANDAG. Keep feeding a spoiled child money, and he/she will only ask for more. And waste it.

The SANDAG Auditor released a new report 10/11. On the SR125 toll mess where tolls were repeatedly mischarged and the Board was not notified for 6 or 7 years, SANDAG is still trying to reconcile data from the ETAN system that was broken from the start. It still cannot tell, on a daily basis, that all systems are operating correctly, which is basic to the whole scheme. If the system cannot be verified, the toll should be removed.

The Auditor recommended last year "The Board should consider a policy that requires a Board report when a multimillion-dollar project is failing to meet its deadlines and deliverables..." This is not started and there is no estimated completion. I think it would be simpler to require that SANDAG makes sure it hires honest people with a demonstrated track record of admitting their mistakes.

I'd hate to be the lawyer who has to defend a system which broke and the owner has not even started to make sure that the new system works.

And this is probably taking time and resources away from the Auditor looking at/improving new issues.

Subject: [External] COUNTY ADMIN HAS A POSITIVE DUTY TO PREVENT ANIMAL ABUSE
Date: Sunday, October 27, 2024 9:54:11 AM

Good Morning,

While looking for other matters, I noticed the following duties of the Board of Supervisors. These are duties (shall,) not things that they may or can do (may) clauses.

In view of the repeated incidents of abuse at the Artesian Road property of Craig Netwig and Deborah Barkley, it is clear that the San Diego County Board of Supervisors has a positive duty to protect the health of livestock (include horses for racing?)

It is nice that they refer the matter to the DA, but the incidents have been growing and repeated (also involving apparent threats to persons) It is clear to me that the Supervisors have a duty not only to refer the matter out, but also to ensure that the referral is followed up with appropriate action (order, not just adopt rules and wash their hands of the matter.)

Government Code – GOV - TITLE 3. GOVERNMENT OF COUNTIES, DIVISION 2. OFFICERS,

PART 2. BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, CHAPTER 8. Health and Safety, ARTICLE 1. Animals

25800.

The board of supervisors shall adopt orders and enact ordinances not in conflict with State or federal laws necessary for the preservation of the health of domestic livestock, and provide for the payment of all expenses incurred in enforcing them. The expenses of enforcement are a county charge and are payable in the same manner and 18663 out of the same funds as other county charges are paid.

(Added by Stats. 1947, Ch. 424.)

["Livestock" means any cattle, sheep, swine, goat, or any horse, mule or other equine, whether live or dead. Per Food & Agric. Code Sec. 18663. ]

25801.

The board may enter into agreements with the Director of Agriculture for the purpose of cooperating in the administration and enforcement of those provisions of law subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture or county agricultural commissioners, county sealers of weights and measures, and county livestock inspectors.

(Added by Stats. 1947, Ch. 424.)

25802.

The board may maintain, regulate, and govern public animal shelters, fix the limits within which animals shall not run at large, and appoint shelter directors. All expenses of operation and maintenance and the compensation of the shelter directors shall be paid out of the fines imposed and collected from the owners of impounded animals, or from the general fund of the county, or both.

25803.

The board may provide for the prevention of injuries to sheep by dogs, and for the destruction and control of predatory animals, and may tax the possessors of dogs and direct the application of the tax. The board may, by ordinance, require veterinarians licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 4800) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code to report to the county the shooting or poisoning of any dog. Such veterinarian may be required to report the name of the owner of such dog, if known, or the person or persons requesting treatment of such dog.

(Amended by Stats. 1973, Ch. 340.)

I am sorry that I did not find this earlier.

But then, there is what to do after the matter is referred on.

Penal Code:

Penal Code – PEN PART 1. OF CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS [25 - 680.4] TITLE 14. MALICIOUS MISCHIEF [594 - 625c] ( Title 14 enacted 1872. )Amended by Stats. 2023, Ch. 546, Sec. 2. (AB 829) Effective January 1, 2024.)

597.1.

(a) (1) Every owner, driver, or keeper of any animal who permits the animal to be in any building, enclosure, lane, street, square, or lot of any city, county, city and county, or judicial district without proper care and attention is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any peace officer, humane society officer, or animal control officer shall take possession of the stray or abandoned animal and shall provide care and treatment for the animal until the animal is deemed to be in suitable condition to be returned to the owner. When the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that very prompt action is required to protect the health or safety of the animal or the health or safety of others, the officer shall immediately seize the animal and comply with subdivision (f). In all other cases, the officer shall comply with the provisions of subdivision (g). The full cost of caring for and treating any animal properly seized under this subdivision or pursuant to a search warrant shall constitute a lien on the animal and the animal shall not be returned to its owner until the charges are paid, if the seizure is upheld pursuant to this section.

So actually, there only needed to be evidence of animal cruelty and proper notice after the fact.

But now, these are probably applicable:

I hope that this helps in getting quick action after all this time.
