What are your principal areas of interest in County Government?

My principal areas of interest in County Government center on planning and land use issues that directly affect Julian's unincorporated area. I recognize that the Julian Community Planning Group serves an advisory role to the County of San Diego, ensuring that local perspectives are considered in decisions impacting zoning, development, infrastructure, and environmental stewardship. While the group does not make binding decisions, it plays a vital role in representing community interests. I am committed to upholding the Brown Act, conducting transparent and open meetings, and fostering community engagement to identify and address local needs, priorities, and concerns
