This is frightening! Not the cost for this, the travel cost, but sending our Sheriffs for "International Police" training! What? and to Scotland, where they have gone full totalitarian? and for "Football events"? Is there some kind of planned attack we should know about? Please keep our Sheriffs at home to protect our citizens here, to uphold their oath of office to protect our US Constitution, and not get involved with globalist agendas. Thank you,

Unnecessary. Waste of money. "They" can come here or zoom [as many of us were forced to do during covid].

Seems odd and unnecessary to go to a foreign country with different laws to learn about security at sporting events? I think law enforcement has enough experience with this in the U.S to address any training needed.

More wasteful spending seems very odd that this would even be requested.

I do not know how germane the 'Preparing for Major Football Events' Training is to San Diego since the Board Letter only mentions FIFA in Los Angeles. And I haven't heard of any unusual policing issues at San Diego events.

It is, however, a good opportunity to pick up a Scottish brogue (accent) and a kilt or two – maybe the Sheriff will even get a bagpipe band. How cool would that be?
