NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Public Notice is hereby given that a public hearing, as required by Section 147(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), will be held by the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego on June 3, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. local time, or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard, at the San Diego County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, Room 310, San Diego, California, 92101 regarding the proposed issuance by the California Municipal Finance Authority (the "Authority") of its revenue bonds in one or more series in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $205,000,000 (the "Series 2025 Bonds"), of which not to exceed $80,000,000 will be used to finance or refinance projects in the County of San Diego. The proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds will be loaned to HumanGood, HumanGood NorCal, HumanGood SoCal or HumanGood Fresno, each a California nonprofit public benefit corporation and an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or a tax-exempt affiliate thereof that is a related party (collectively, the "Borrower"). The proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds will be applied, together with other available funds, (a) in a principal amount not to exceed $35,000,000, to refund all or a portion of the outstanding $52,080,000 original principal amount California Statewide Communities Development Authority Revenue Bonds, Series 2015 (American Baptist Homes of the West) (the "Series 2015 NorCal Bonds"), (b) in a principal amount not to exceed $40,000,000, to refund all or a portion of the outstanding $47,900,000 original principal amount California Municipal Finance Authority Senior Living Revenue Bonds (Southern California Presbyterian Homes) Series 2015 (the "Series 2015 SoCal Bonds"), (c) in a principal amount not to exceed $15,000,000, to refund all or a portion of the outstanding $15,480,000 original principal amount California Municipal Finance Authority Revenue and Refunding Bonds, Series 2020A (HumanGood - California Obligated Group) (the "Series 2020A Bonds"), (d) in a principal amount not to exceed $60,000,000, to refund all or a portion of the outstanding $64,765,000 original principal amount California Municipal Finance Authority Revenue and Refunding Bonds, Series 2020B (HumanGood - California Obligated Group) (the "Series 2020B Bonds"), (e) in a principal amount not to exceed $55,000,000, to finance or reimburse the cost of constructing, building, remodeling, renovating, rehabilitating, upgrading, furnishing and equipping certain of the Borrower's continuing care retirement communities (the "Communities") located in several jurisdictions throughout the state of California, including in the County of San Diego, (f) to pay a portion of the interest on the Series 2025 Bonds, if deemed necessary or advisable by the Authority or the Borrower, (g) to provide working capital to the Borrower, if deemed necessary or advisable by the Authority or the Borrower, (h) to fund a debt service reserve fund, if deemed necessary or advisable by the Authority or the Borrower, and (i) to pay certain expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of the Series 2025 Bonds. The Series 2025 Bonds will be issued as qualified 501(c)(3) bonds pursuant to Section 145 of the Code.

The proceeds of the Series 2015 SoCal Bonds were used, among other things, to (1) advance refund the California Statewide Communities Development Authority Senior Living Fixed Rate Revenue Bonds (Southern California Presbyterian Homes) Series 2006A (the "Series 2006A Bonds"), (2) finance or reimburse the cost of the remodeling, renovation, furnishing and equipping of the Borrower's continuing care facilities located in several jurisdictions, including in the County of San Diego, and (3) pay certain expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of the Series 2015 SoCal Bonds.

Public approval by each local jurisdiction has been or will be obtained following a public notice and public hearing regarding the Series 2025 Bonds and the Communities financed in that local jurisdiction. A portion of the proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds in a principal amount not to exceed $20,000,000 will be used to finance expenditures for various renovations to existing infrastructure and upgrades to housing units and amenities at the following continuing care retirement community located in the County of San Diego: White Sands located at 7450 Olivetas Avenue, La Jolla, California, 92037. A portion of the proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds in a principal amount not to exceed $20,000,000 will be used to finance expenditures for various renovations to existing infrastructure and upgrades to housing units and amenities at the following continuing care retirement community located in the County of San Diego: Redwood Terrace located at 710 West 13th Avenue, Escondido, California, 92025. A portion of the proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds will be used to refund all or a portion of the Series 2015 SoCal Bonds, a portion of the proceeds of which were used to finance or refinance expenditures at White Sands located at 7450 Olivetas Avenue, La Jolla, California, 92037 and Redwood Terrace located at 710 West 13th Avenue, Escondido, California, 92025.

All property and facilities to be financed or refinanced with the proceeds of the Series 2025 Bonds have been and will be owned and principally used operated by the Borrower.

The Series 2025 Bonds and the obligation to pay principal of and interest thereon and any redemption premium with respect thereto do not constitute indebtedness or an obligation of the County of San Diego, the Authority, the State of California or any political subdivision thereof, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation, or a charge against the general credit or taxing powers of any of them. The Series 2025 Bonds shall be a limited obligation of the Authority, payable solely from certain revenues duly pledged therefor and generally representing amounts paid by the Borrower.

Interested persons wishing to express their views on the issuance of the Series 2025 Bonds or on the nature and location of the continuing care community in the County of San Diego proposed to be financed or refinanced may attend the public hearing in person or via video conference or telephone or, prior to the time of the hearing, submit written comments via mail to 1600 Pacific Highway, Room 402, San Diego, CA 92101 Attn: Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, or via eComment through the County's website at www.sandiegocounty.gov/eComment. Subsequent to the public hearing, the members of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego will meet to consider approval of the execution and delivery of the Series 2025 Bonds.

Additional information concerning the above matter may be obtained from Bethany Ghassemi, HumanGood General Counsel, 1900 Huntington Drive, Duarte, California, 91010.

Ukraine, the Ukrainian air force said. The attacks have killed at least 30 civilians and injured more than 163, Ukraine says.

The campaign comes a week after Trump spoke to Putin by telephone and appeared ready to abandon his efforts to secure a ceasefire.

Russia has clearly seen an opening as the United States — long the main arsenal of Ukraine's resistance — pulls back from the diplomatic process and resists supplying Kyiv with additional military assistance, according to analysts.

“For the last three years, for both good and ill, the policy choices in Washington had played an active, at times determinative, role in shaping the course of the war,” said Phillips O’Brien, a professor of strategic studies at the University of St. Andrews in Britain. “The U.S. is slowly starving Ukraine of vital aid, which is very much understood and acted on by the Russians.”

Trump’s comments on Russia’s prosecution of the war constituted a sharp rebuke of Putin. “I don’t know what the hell happened to Putin,” Trump said. “I’ve known him a long time. Always gotten along with him. But he’s sending rockets into cities and killing people, and I don’t like it at all.”

But even as Trump condemned the latest Russian bombardments, he also criticized President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine, accusing him of “provocative words” and saying that he is “doing his Country no favors by talking the way he does.”

And, in a comment that appeared to reiterate his earlier expressed desire to step away from trying to mediate the conflict, leaving it for Ukraine and Russia to solve, he said: “This is not Trump’s war.”

The Kremlin spokesperson, Dmitry Peskov, expressed gratitude to Trump for pressing negotiations between Russia and Ukraine, calling the start of talks in Istanbul earlier this month “a very important achievement.”

“This is a very crucial moment, which is associated with an emotional overload for absolutely everyone and with emotional reactions,” Peskov told reporters Monday.

Since taking office, Trump has not approved a single new military assistance package for Ukraine and has not said whether he will spend the $3.85 billion Congress has already authorized for Kyiv.

While the last shipments of weapons promised by the Biden administration are still making their way to the battlefield, no new weapons are in the pipeline. It is unclear if the White House will allow Ukraine to purchase American weapons any more.

As Ukraine runs out of interceptor missiles for its Patriot systems, Russian bombardments will become more deadly, military analysts have warned.

Meanwhile, German Chancellor Friedrich Merz said on Monday that there are “no longer any range restrictions for weapons that have been delivered to Ukraine — neither by the British, nor by the French or by us, and not by the Americans either.”

“That means Ukraine can also defend itself by, for example, attacking military positions in Russia. Until a while ago, it couldn’t ... it can now,” he said.

It was not clear if Merz was referring to the easing of restrictions on longer-range weapons late last year. Before becoming chancellor, Merz called for Germany to supply Taurus long-range cruise missiles to Kyiv, something his predecessor, Olaf Scholz, refused to do.

Commenting on Merz’s statement, Peskov said that a decision to lift range restrictions was “quite dangerous” and “contrary to our efforts to reach a political settlement.”

French President Emmanuel Macron said the latest Russian bombardments “show the extent to which President Putin has lied to the Europeans and to the Americans.”

He told reporters while on a visit to Vietnam that Ukraine’s allies should, with U.S. support, set Putin a deadline “so that finally everyone can understand that he is lying and that beyond this deadline, massive retaliation is carried out, in particular in terms of sanctions.”

The European Union’s top diplomat, foreign policy chief Kaja Kallas, also said the bloc intended to impose more sanctions on Moscow, calling Russia’s latest attacks as “totally appalling.”

Meanwhile, Russia continues to upgrade its arsenal. Russian Iskander-M ballistic missiles now deploy radar decoys and follow quasi-ballistic trajectories, making them harder to intercept, according to Ukrainian officials and military analysts.

Russia and Ukraine swapped hundreds more prisoners Sunday in the third and last part of a major exchange. All told, each side released more than 1,000 prisoners — soldiers and civilians — in the biggest swap of the war.

The Associated Press contributed to this report.

RANGEL

calling Rangel “a patriot, hero, statesman, leader, trailblazer, change agent and champion for justice who made his beloved Harlem, the City of New York and the United States of America a better place for all.”

Few could forget Rangel after hearing him talk. His distinctive, gravel-toned voice and wry sense of humor were a memorable mix.

That voice — one of the most liberal in the House — was loudest in opposition to the Iraq War, which he branded a “death tax” on poor people and minorities. In 2004, he tried to end the war by offering a bill to restart the military service draft. Republicans called his bluff and brought the bill to a vote. Even Rangel voted against it.

A year later, Rangel’s fight over the war became bitterly personal with then-Vice President Dick Cheney.

Rangel said Cheney, who has a history of heart trouble, might be too sick to perform his job.

“I would like to believe he’s sick rather than just mean and evil,” Rangel said. After several such verbal jabs, Cheney hit back, saying Rangel was “losing it.”

The charismatic Harlem lawmaker rarely backed down from a fight after he first entered the House in 1971 as a dragon slayer of sorts, having unseated Powell in the Democratic congressional primary in 1970. The flamboyant elder Powell, a city political icon first elected to the House in 1944, was ill and haunted by scandal at the time.

In 1987, Congress approved what was known as the “Rangel amendment,” which denied foreign tax credits to U.S. companies investing in apartheid-era South Africa.

Former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton noted that he urged her to run for the Senate in 2000. Former President Bill Clinton recalled working with Rangel in the 1990s to extend tax credits for businesses that invest in economically distressed areas.

Rangel became leader of the main tax-writing committee of the House, which has jurisdiction over programs including Social Security and Medicare, after the 2006 midterm elections when Democrats ended 12 years of Republican control of the chamber. But in 2010, a House ethics committee conducted a hearing on 13 counts of alleged financial and fundraising misconduct over issues surrounding financial disclosures and use of congressional resources.

He was convicted of 11 ethics violations. The House found he had failed to pay taxes on a vacation villa, filed misleading financial disclosure forms and improperly solicited donations for a college center from corporations with business before his committee.

The House followed the ethics committee’s recommendation that he be censured, the most serious punishment short of expulsion.

Rangel looked after his constituents, sponsoring empowerment zones with tax credits for businesses moving into economically depressed areas and developers of low-income housing.

“I have always been committed to fighting for the little guy,” Rangel said in 2012.

Rangel was born June 11, 1930. During the Korean War, he earned a Purple Heart and a Bronze Star. He would always say that he measured his days, even the troubled ones around the ethics scandal, against the time in 1950 when he survived being wounded as other soldiers didn’t make it.

It became the title of his autobiography: “And I Haven’t Had A Bad Day Since.”

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on June 11, 2025 at 5:00 p.m., the Board of Directors of the Leucadia Wastewater District (District), located at 1960 La Costa Ave., Carlsbad, CA, will hold a public hearing to consider:

1) A proposal to continue collecting the wastewater service charges of the District on the County Tax Roll in the same manner, together with, and at the same time as general taxes. There is on file with the District a written report showing the amount of the wastewater service charges proposed for fiscal year 2026 for each parcel of real property receiving wastewater service. A copy of the report is available for inspection at the District office. Written inquiries shall be addressed to Leucadia Wastewater District, 1960 La Costa Ave., Carlsbad, CA 92009.

The Board of Directors will consider all objections or protests to the report. If the Board of Directors finds that protests are made by the owners of a majority of separate parcels of property described in the report, then the report shall not be adopted and the wastewater service charges shall be collected separately from the tax rolls.
