I strongly oppose secret county subcommittees. We should only have open meetings where the public, the tax paying residents are included in issues that affect them. I am astounded such meetings have been held. Please respect the county residents and do right by them. I support Item 13 and I hope today you will vote to end ALL secret meetings. Thank you.

On March 2020, county offices almost completely shut down due to "covid". Some offices remained empty while restructuring of operations were underway. Fast forward to today June of 2026, (six years later) some office spaces still remain empty and unused. Since then, every month, the citizens of this county have been paying the bill for empty/unused office spaces. At a time where we are trying to cut back on spending because everything is ridiculously expensive, what is the Board of Supervisors doing to stop wasting our tax dollars on rent for empty/unused offices spaces?

Hey Paloma - what are the plans for the celebration of America's Semiquincentennial? You opposed Supervisor Anderson's plan and insisted on a celebration of immigrants-legal or otherwise...What is your big plan? Why is there no mention of your big plan on the agenda? What is the budget for your big celebration? Is your preference to not celebrate America?
