This ordinance adds a Deputy Chief Financial Officer and a Sheriff's Senior Director of Management Services. You already have a Deputy CFO, Brian Albright, and I see no justification for hiring an additional deputy or a Sheriff's Senior Director when you already have a Director.

It looks like a waste of $363 thou or more per year. I oppose this.

Again, an ordinance, both readings, but especially the first reading, does not belong on the consent calendar, although it was on 1/28/2026. Public speakers should have the full speaking time to discuss it, not just the few seconds permitted after taking into account the entire consent calendar. For instance, if there are 12 items, given the 2 minutes you allow, that is an average of 10 seconds per item. Ridiculous.
