I think this is a good area to save money. The list of unresolved cases is ridiculous. The legal costs and interest pile up.

In addition, the number of victims belies the County's motto 'The noblest motive is the public good' - from jail deaths to Polinsky inmates...

Something is wrong in the legal department if the cases keep building up and the excuses and explanations I hear are getting sleazier and sleazier.

So I do not think the lawyers need another raise until the department is reformed.

And I do not like how the County Counsel almost always says 'no reportable actions' to summarize the closed session while the Deputy Counsel does provide a bit of detail.
