Seem like they could do good at the Board.

Matthew Dix – A deputy DA for 18 years, not the best recommendation, but currently serves on the Board of Directors of the National Alliance on Mental Illness San Diego so he probably can help with old-age mental disorders and maybe even other County boards or employees.

Skip Murphy – nice mustache but I don't know how much a retired captain in the Sheriff Department can contribute. Good choice for the alternate.

Janel Pehau – a former County Auditor and Budget , may be able to improve the County Finances and tell who actually deserves a retirement with full benefits, particularly the pervs in Child & Family Welfare and the do-nothings in the Public Defender's office. Probably
