No to the extending of Term limits for County Supervisors.

Imagine this, Democrats do enough to make enough people upset with them, from raising taxes to raising fees to stopping people from speaking freely about corruption. Enough of San Diego sees this and decides that Democrats have gone too far and decide to vote against democrats and vote in republicans to the supervisor seats.

Now republicans have 3 terms term limits, this is something I am not opposed to, as a republican myself, however this would be something that majority of democrats are against.

Do not extend the term limits of any board position. This is dangerous.

Democrats want no Kings, but when Democrats want to act like kings and queens, it seems to be perfectly okay to go against this value of having no kings.
