May 1st:

there's some type of immediate emergency. The occupants of the encampment have been peaceful at this point.

May 3rd:

evening text. Just wanted to update on the ground, everything still peaceful & still limited police presence. There were some on a weekend. Chancellor just ordered the encampment to disperse. Admin appears to be escalating the situation despite acknowledging it's been peaceful.

Organizers are committed to peaceful protest and insist PD shouldn't become involved. I agree with them, I feel like it would escalate the situation to have a large police presence on campus.

UCSD Chancellor Khosla's official residence, 9630 La Jolla Farms Rd, is a 7 acre TAX EXEMPT mansion built on a stolen Kumeyaay burial ground. To get free donor money to rehab the mansion, UCSD purposefully neglected maintenance of that mansion for years. The mansion is estimated to pay $500,000 in property tax every year if not for its tax exempt status. By that mansion alone, UCSD has already stolen $5,000,000 from the City and County governments of San Diego during Chancellor Khosla's ten-year tenure. We are all suffering for Khosla's king-like lifestyle.
