The last thing we need is another politician in Washington, D.C. Stay at home and do your job for the people that elected you!

This doesn't make any sense. Stay in San Diego and do your job.

I oppose using county funds to further the political careers of the county board of supervisors. That is the only thing this can be about. The county board of supervisors has no business in Washington DC. That is what our assembly members and Senators are for. If you want something from Washington DC call them just like the rest of us. the money for the county should stay in the county.

I believe these funds would be better used locally. We have other, elected, representatives that the County officials should be working with to address issues that relate to San Diego County.

There is no reason for our county to be in Washington DC. You are a local government and answer to the people and to the state. The federal government has no jurisdiction over counties. Setting up shop in DC provides opportunities for questionable conduct. Federal funds are never free as the recipient always repays in some fashion. Our county should not be beholden to the federal government in addition to the state.
